

新 苗 文 藝 中 心

Located in Manhattan's bustling Chinatown, the New York Chinese Cultural Center's School of the Arts has been a leader in the downtown arts community for over 30 years. Large, mirror-paneled studios house classes in Chinese folk and ancient classical dance, Peking Opera, and acrobatics. Classes in Chinese painting, calligraphy, paper cutting, paper folding, and language round out the curriculum.

All classes are grouped according to age and skill levels. We offer a Winter/Spring Semester, from January through June; a Summer Semester, from July through August; and a Fall Semester, from September through December. In addition, there is a Summer Camp and there are special interest workshops. Seasonal sessions are frequently added throughout the year. Many of the classes are held on Saturdays and Sundays.

TUITION

Tuition is paid semi-annually, and discounts are available for families with more than one family member enrolled or for persons attending multiple classes. Limited scholarships or work/study are also available. All classes are contingent upon enrollment size.

FACULTY

Our teachers have trained in the best professional academies in China and the United States and have won prestigious awards in their fields. Their teaching, perfected through many years of experience, emphasizes quality, commitment, and discipline in an engaging, comfortable, and interactive environment.

PERFORMANCE OPPORTUNITIES

Students participate in an annual student recital in June and at an open house in December. On occasion, students will perform at other special events.
